WHAT WE LOOK FOR IN A TIPPLE

We set up this business to enjoy time with each other, with our family and with you folk in the pub. Hence the drinks we choose, like the food, are ones we'd be happy to serve at home. This means we have a range to suit tastes and purses but we don't cut corners on taste or provenance. We are only a small company too, so we don't have the purchasing power of many others, but we do our best to keep it manageable.

If you have any thought or suggestions do get in touch, otherwise work your way through this 'mindfully'... we've had to!
